

Introductory Officiating Clinic

The clinic specifically presents an introduction to the basic elements of three officiating roles: the LINE UMPIRE, the CHAIR UMPIRE, and the ROVING UMPIRE

Dates: October 15 – 16, 2022

Times: Saturday 10:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.
Sunday 9:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
(Lunch provided on Saturday)

Location: Regina Mosaic Stadium (1700 Elphinstone Street – North End, by Rider Store)
Court location on Sunday - TBA

Criteria for Entrance: Participants must be 16 years of age

Cost: $0.00 (Tennis Canada recommended fee is $30.00) (Each participant will receive a copy of the Tennis Canada Rulebook “Rules of the Court”)

Clinician: Dennis Rennie – Dennis is the Tennis Saskatchewan Officials Coordinator. Over the past several years, Dennis has worked many Tennis Saskatchewan sanctioned tournaments, as a line umpire, chair umpire, roving umpire, and as a tournament referee. Dennis has also worked as a Chair Umpire at three Canada Summer Games (2005, 2009, and 2013) and has worked as a Line Umpire at several Davis Cup and Rogers Cup Tournaments (Canada’s top international men’s and women’s professional tournaments).

Clinic Content: The Introduction to “Officiating” Clinic is an entry-level training clinic, designed to introduce new officials to the Rules of Tennis, the Code of Conduct, and the basic techniques of officiating. It is also recommended for officials who have not been active in the past two years, or who would like a refresher of rules, regulations, and procedures.

How to Register: To register for the clinic please click here.

For further information please contact Tennis Saskatchewan by phone @ 306-780-9410 or by email @ tennissask@sasktel.net. Registration deadline is Thursday, October 13. Please pre-register. Thank you.

BECOME A CERTIFIED TENNIS OFFICIAL!!!

Please note that Tennis Saskatchewan pays certified officials to work sanctioned tournaments!